Dear Current Tri-M Members:

This newsletter contains all the information you NEED to know to be an active member of the Carol A. Dissmeyer chapter of the Tri-M Music Honor Society. So grab a coffee, sit in a comfortable chair, and read through it!

Induction:

Induction will take place on Thursday, March 8th at 6pm. It will be followed by the Scholarship Concert at 7:30pm (performances by the Symphony Orchestra, Symphonic Winds, and Wind Ensemble). The keynote speaker will be Dr. Chris Cicconi, director of bands and orchestras at Towson University.

Coffeehouse Concert:

ALL Tri-M students will perform at our first annual Coffeehouse Concert on Tuesday, December 19th at 6pm in the cafeteria. We will transform the space into a coffeehouse and treat our friends and family to coffee, desserts, and music! To be clear, this is not a solo/ensemble festival. Music does not have to be formal in any way. This is an opportunity for you and your friends to showcase your talents in a casual atmosphere. I expect many of you will perform holiday classics like "I'll Be Home for Period 4," "Good Mr. King Wenceslas," or "I Saw Mommy Kissing Mr. Pusateri." I know we will be putting together a Tuba Christmas ensemble of Tubas and Baritones and maybe if you ask nicely enough, the music faculty will also perform.

Everyone will also need to supply something for the coffeehouse concert. Sign-ups will be posted in the music suite hallway so start planning now if you can bring any of the following: cups, plates, napkins, desserts, coffee creamers, sugar and sugar substitutes, decorations, coffee, desserts, and desserts.

Concert Ushers and Stage Helpers:

This year we would like Tri-M students to serve as concert ushers and stage helpers. Your job would include welcoming guests, passing out flyers, and helping to reset the state as needed. This can count as your service project. Sign-ups will be posted in the music suite hallway for the concerts coming up the first week of December. The choral concert is Monday, 12/4. The band and orchestra concerts are Tuesday and Wednesday, 12/5 and 12/6. The guitar concert is Friday, 12/8. Do not sign up to help at a concert on which you are performing.

MANDATORY meeting:

There will be a mandatory chapter meeting on Monday, December 11th from 2:30-3pm in the band room (154). We will elect additional officers to the Tri-M executive board (as noted below), make final arrangements for the Coffeehouse Concert, and some other stuff that will come up between now and then. Please speak with coaches or teachers ahead of time so they know you will be arriving late to your practice/club.

Michael Behnke and Ana Reyes will be co-Presidents for this upcoming year so the chapter still needs a Vice President, Treasurer, and Historian. Executive board members will meet somewhat regularly to make decisions about our chapter functions.
