

Marching Band Theme Release Party- Friday, April 4, 2014 at 2:30pm

Directions: Write a letter to a close friend or family member about one of the topics below. The letters may be real feelings you have had about those topics, or they could be imaginary. Make this letter personal to you. The more real the letter is, the more you will be able to contribute to the design of the show in an effective way.

Show the completed letter to the bouncer on your way into the band room. Only completed letters will be accepted as admission. Some students will be asked to read their letters aloud, but you do not have to share your letter if it is too personal.

Letter topics: Pick one of the two topics below as the subject of your letter. Use the guide points to help you organize your thoughts.

- A. You have been away from home for a very long time.
 - a. Where have you been?
 - b. What experiences have you had while you've been away?
 - c. You want your family and friends to know how much you miss them.

- B. You are about to begin a new adventure in your life (like going to college).
 - a. Where are you going?
 - b. What will you plan on doing when you get there?
 - c. You want your family and friends to know how excited you are and even somewhat nervous.
